Data Protection

Dunedin Dancers collects information about you to manage your membership, and, if you agree, to email you about Dunedin's activities and membership and other related activities which we think may be of interest to members. Your name and (if you agree) contact details will also appear on the password-protected area of the Dunedin web site. More information is available in our Privacy Policy which is available from our web site, www.dunedindancers.org.uk.

We need your permission to use your contact details for more than basic administration. Please indicate which of the following you are happy with: Please Tick

I wish to join the committee's email distribution list and receive emails from the committee about Dunedin activities

I wish to join the Dunedin members' email distribution list and receive occasional emails from other members

I wish my contact details to be made available to other members via the password-protected members-only area of the Dunedin web site

Dunedin Dancers produces a newsletter for members several times a year. We wish to save time, money and paper by distributing the newsletter electronically.

If, however, you would prefer to receive a print copy of the newsletter, please tick here
